PROSPECTUS.

1. The Gwalior Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition will be opened at Gwalior on Monday, the 11th March 1918, and will remain open till Monday, the 25th March 1918.

The time of the Exhibition.

2. At this period, special attention is being paid to the development of the economic resources of the various parts of the Empire. The main object of this Exhibition is to make widely known the great natural resources of this premier Indian State in Central India, to secure a wider recognition of what has been and is being done to utilize them, to encourage cultivators, artisans and craftsmen to promote among them a fuller knowledge of methods, processes and appliances to enable them to learn and profit by the skill of others, and lastly to help the public and particularly the captains of industry and the capitalists to realize the wide range of opportunities which lie within their reach. With these objects in view it is proposed to make a representative collection of the various kinds of economic products found in the State, and to show how the same are at present being utilized, and what possibilities they offer for the future. It is also proposed to present a display of the samples of various kinds of articles and stores which are annually purchased in large quantities for the use of the various departments of the State. The Committee will make special efforts to bring together and show side by side the processes of manufacture and products of the State with similar products turned out in other parts of India. It is also contemplated to have a large exhibit of Agricultural and Industrial machinery, and to demonstrate their working in the Exhibition.

The Committee hopes that the occasion will be utilized by the various Engineering firms, and Industrial concerns, as an opportunity for introducing their machines and manufactures in this part of India.

Lectures.

3. It is also proposed to arrange for lectures being given by Experts in English and Vernacular on subjects connected with Industry, Agriculture, Education, Health Hygiene, with aid of magic lantern, where possible—Written notes on subjects above specified will be thankfully received, and if approved will be printed in book forms for distribution at the Exhibition.

Other attractions.

4. The Gwalior Spring Race Meeting has been fixed to take place during the Exhibition period, the races will be run on the 19th, 21st and 23rd March 1918. The Gwalior Sports Club has drawn up an interesting programme including Tent-pegging, Hockey and Gymkhana Sports. A varied programme of events and amusements including wrestling matches will be provided, to add to the attraction of the Exhibition. Adjoining the Exhibition, there will be large Bazaars to which shop-keepers come from all parts of India.

Scope of the Exhibition.

5. The Committee invites exhibits from all districts of the State, as well as from outside. They also appeal to the various Agricultural Departments and Associations in other parts of India, to help them with exhibits and suggestions.

Processes and Demonstrations.

6. The Commitee will take into consideration the applications of Experts, or Industrial concerns desirous of demonstrating any process of manufacture, or working of any useful machines which are considered to be of sufficient importance. Besides machines worked by hand, bullocks, or steam, special encouragement will be given to machines driven by electricity. Gwalior has got an Electric Power Station, and a big Hydro-electric Scheme for the City of Gwalior is at present in the course of execution, firms interested in the introduction of Electric machines and appliances will find this a splendid opportunity.

Railway concessions.

7. Railway concessions have been granted by the various Railway Companies for the carriage of Exhibits. This concession will be availabe from the 20th of February to 20th of April 1918.

Camping ground and accommodation for visitors.

8. The Gwalior Grand Hotel, the Lashkar Hotel, the Srikishan Dharmsala and Dufferein Sarai are places where visitors from outside could find ample accommodation suited to their requirements, all the above places are within few minutes' walk from the Exhibition site, which is quite close to the Gwalior Railway Station.

Arrangements have however been made to provide suitable accommodation in tents for exhibitors and visitors who give timely notice.

Rules and Regulations.

9. Rules and Regulations relating to the Exhibition and a Synopsis of the classification of exhibits are attached.

Fruit and Flower Show.

10. There will also be held on a date to be notified hereafter a Fruit and Flower Show.

Judges.

11. A Committee consisting of competent persons, officials, and non-officials will be appointed as jurors who will examine exhibits and determine their relative merits and decide which of them deserve special recognition.

Prizes and Medals.

12. According to the verdict of the Judges and Committee gold, silver and bronze Medals, Diplomas of Honour, and Certificate of Merits as also cash prizes will be awarded. The names of successful exhibitors will be published together with a description of the exhibits which may have earned the various prizes.

The silver and bronze medals awarded will be given free of cost by the Committee. In the case of gold medals awarded, if the actual medal is desired the cost must be defrayed by the successful exhibitor.

Donations and Prizes from the Public.

13. The Committee would thankfully except donations for awarding prizes or medals from individuals or associations desiring to give an impetus to any special branch of Art, Agriculture or Industry.
